

Implementation Process

The implementation process is split up into four groups composed from campuses, colleges, and units in the University of Minnesota system. Each group will work through 7 milestones to transition to centralized operations for Human Resources, Finance, Marketing Communications and IT.

